LOT 232.

AN OFFICER'S GROUP OF MEDALS

CONSISTING OF THE

VICTORIA CROSS,

Indian Mutiny Medal, with bars for Defence of Lucknow, Lucknow,

AND THE

MILITARY COMPANION'S BADGE

OF THE

ORDER OF THE BATH,

ALL AWARDED TO

Lt.-Colonel F. CORNWALLIS MAUDE, C.B.

ROYAL ARTILLERY,

With original ribands, in case, and portrait of recipient, extremely fine and RARE.

"Col. Maude had a brilliant military career. He took a prominent part in the suppression of the Indian Mutiny, and commanded the Royal Artillery throughout the operations with General Havelock's column in 1857, including the defeat of the rebels at Futtehpore, the actions of Aoung, Pandoo Nuddee, Cawnpore, Oonao, Buseerutgunge and Mungarwar, and the relief and defence of the Residency at Lucknow. He was with Outram's force, at the Alumbagh, from January till March, 1858, and he was also at the siege and capture of Lucknow, and was repeatedly mentioned in despatches. He was awarded the brevets of major and lieutenant-colonel and the Victoria Cross; and he was also, in further recognition of his valuable services, made a C.B., and received a medal, with clasps, and a year's service.

"According to the Army List, the Victoria Cross was awarded for the following service:—'This officer steadily and cheerily pushed on with his men and bore down the desperate opposition of the enemy, though with the loss of one-third of his artillerymen. Sir James Outram adds that this attack appeared to him to indicate no reckless or foolhardy daring, but the calm heroism of a true soldier, who fully appreciates the difficulties and dangers of the task he has undertaken; and that, but for Captain Maude's nerve and coolness on this trying occasion, the army could not have advanced.'—Extract from Field Force Orders of the late Major-General Havelock, dated Oct. 17, 1857."

"Lieut.-Col. John Galiffe, late of 60th Foot, served in the Rifle Battalion of the 60th during the whole of the Peninsular War, and was present at the following battles and sieges, viz.:—Roleia, 17th of Aug. 1808 (wounded slightly); Vimiera, 21st Aug. 1808; Talavera, 27th and 28th July, 1809 (wounded slightly); Busaco, 27th Sept. 1810; Fuentes d'Onor, 5th May, 1811; Albuhera, 16th May, 1811; Ciudad Rodrigo, Jan. 1812; Badajoz, 17th March and 16th April, 1812; Salamanca, 22nd July, 1812 (wounded severely); Vittoria, 21st June, 1813 (wounded); Pyrenees, 28th July to 2nd Aug. 1813; St. Sebastian, Aug. and Sept. 1813; Nivelle, 10th Nov. 1813; Orthes, 27th Feb. 1814 (wounded slightly); Toulouse, 10th April, 1814. His brilliant conduct in command of the light troops of the 3rd, or Picton's (the Fighting) Division, frequently called forth the applause of that distinguished General, and the admiration of his brethren in arms, and obtained for him the Order of the Bath and a Cross for the battles of Vittoria, Nivelle, Orthes, and Toulouse. The effects of long service in a tropical climate, acting on a constitution impaired by seven severe wounds received in the Service, obliged him to retire by the sale of his commissions, after the war."
